Direction: A personal reflection is an opportunity to reconsider events, thoughts and feelings from a fresh perspective. Your personal reflection can include: (1) your opinions, beliefs and experiences; (2) similarities or contrasts to your own life (i.e. experiences you can identify with); (3) how real or believable a subject / text is; (4) your emotional state at a given moment; and (5) sympathy or empathy with characters. You can support your response through: (1) examples from the text; (2) referring to specific events within a text; and (3) referring to specific quotes within a text.

My Personal Reflection:

I, myself feel that it is a love story with a handsome man and a beauty. Cupid and Psyche's story isn't unexpected. And their story is very romantic one. The story has a happy ending.

This story let me remind the moment that the most romantic with my boyfriend. That day, we went to department store and took the Ferris wheel. When we enjoyed the beautiful firework show, he suddenly took my hand, and told me that I want to be with you. Can you be my girlfriend? What a surprise! And then I promised him, and gave him a big hug.

From this story and my romantic memories, I very agree Cupid said that sentence "love cannot live where there is no trust". Tell us that trust is important in the love. Many couples have a distrust of each other because they don't trust each other. This even causes they will flight, and break up.
